

David Allison to Andrew Jackson, from Correspondence of Andrew Jackson. Edited by John Spencer Bassett.

AN ACCOUNT OF CONTINGENT EXPENSES.

[August, 1795.]

AN ACCOUNT of the Contingent Expences Ariseing on the preperation, Carriage, Boating etc. of a Cargo of Merchandize purchased by Andrew Jackson and David Allison in philadelphia and brought to Nashville between May and August 1795.

For Amount paid Isaac Richardson for Waggonage from Philadelphia on 2330 lb neet weight a 8 dol per hd 186..40

“ Amo't paid Joseph Kennady for Carriage on 1682 lb from Baltimore to Pittsburgh 6.66# pr hund 112..13#

“ Amo't paid Saml Nichols for Carriage on 492 lb from Baltimore to Pittsburgh 33..—

“ Amo't paid Robert Hodgsons Bill of Freight etc. £3..4..10½ Pens Currency is 8..65

“ Amo't paid Howel Tatums Bill Sundries 3..25

“ Amo't paid for Expences Arising on the purchase of a Boat and finding hands etc. from Pittsburgh to Nashville exclusive of the Subsequent Charges 182..92½

“ Amo't Cash furnished Saml Donelson for Expences to Limestone in Kentucky and while there waiting for the Boat 49..50

Library of Congress

“ Amo't paid Saml Donelson for 46 days labour in going to Limestone taking Charge of the Goods and bringing them Around to Nashville a 1..50 pr day 69..—

Dollars 644..86